

SLAYER AND HIS BRIDE HUNTED BY POSSES FOR MURDER ABOARD TRAIN

Texas After Killing Sheriff
Orders Cars Stopped and Takes Wife in Flight.

MUSKOGEE, Okla., March 24.—Three posses are pursuing Paul V. Hadley and his bride, the man being charged with killing Sheriff Jacob Giles of Beaumont, Tex., on a train near Checotah, Okla., today.

Hadley was being taken to Beaumont to answer a murder charge. After he shot Giles, Hadley compelled the conductor to stop the train, and with his wife fled to the hills. They are said to be armed.

DAME FASHION PROMENADES.

New York Women, at Gimble's. See What the Styles Will Be.

Hundreds of women are today planning their spring wardrobes in accordance with the new styles which they observed yesterday at the opening of Gimble's Promenade des Toilettes. Morning, afternoon and evening costumes were shown in a great variety of colors and designs.

Judging from this foreboding of fashion, skirts will remain ten, twelve and fourteen inches from the ground. The barrel skirt, the modern modification of hoops, is to be used with a gown for formal occasions, and even with the more elaborate street suits. Most of the coats are long, light-fitting above the waist and full below it. But a few coats end at the waistline, the fullness beginning at the shoulders.

The small, flat hats so popular last year have almost disappeared. In their stead are round, high-crowned affairs or wide, flat ones. All hats are worn over one eye.

Beaupe effects are popular for afternoon and evening gowns. The period from which the latter are derived is 1850, those of earlier and other brilliant hues will be worn with the short skirts. And the sport suits show startling color combinations; one coat at the Promenade des Toilettes was composed of red and yellow stripes, several cases a coat of transparent material was worn over a gray striped skirt, slightly subduing but by no means hiding its design.

POISON AT PARTY.

Jersey Celebrators Made Ill by Canned Crab Meat.

Mrs. Peter Breen of No. 34½ Elm Street, Jersey City, her five children, her sister, Mrs. Brown, and the wife of Lieut. Johnson of the Jersey City Fire Department were poisoned last night by salad made from canned crab meat which was served at a celebration of Mrs. Breen's birthday. Dr. Meune, the first physician to arrive, thought the sufferers in such danger that he sent out for four other physicians, who remained through the night until all were out of danger.
